60th ANNIVERSARY HONOREES

KEVIN MCEVOY - Chapin Arts and Humanitarian Award

Kevin McEvoy, award winning artist, grew up on Long Island. He began drawing/painting by copying Albrecht Durer's etchings, and statuary at the Metropolitan Museum of Art. He studied in Valparaíso, Chile, later enrolling at the renowned Charles Cecil Studios in Florence. After years of classical training, he returned home to begin his professional art career, and now his works are in collections around the world. Kevin recently established the McEvoy Atelier a private art studio experience. Kevin enjoys sailing with his wife and children, but his generosity of heart is felt around the world. Kevin shares his gifts in his humanitarian efforts. From his work teaching art to incarcerated men, to his Ambassadorship of African Community & Conservation Foundation, to his travels to Uganda creating artwork to benefit the Watoto Children Rescue Center. The true sentiment of Kevin's work is reflected in his own words. "I believe that we are all simply stewards before a Creator- this land, this earth, the people in our lives, the giftings and positions we each are endowed with, what a gift life is that we can each offer that which has been entrusted to us to lift up, to strengthen, to protect, to ennoble."

MAURICE BRANDON CURRY - Chapin Legacy Award

"Becoming an artist wasn't something I wanted to do. It was something I had to BE-COME. The growth and opportunities my life in the arts has provided me was beyond anything I could have imagined as a young aspiring dancer. In my youth, I was inspired, educated, and mentored by icons in their chosen fields. Over the years, those lessons have been shared and, hopefully, inspired generations of new bold and creative visionaries. And the best part of it all? The work continues..." says Maurice Brandon Curry, Executive Artistic Director of Egglewsky Ballet. Maurice trained with the School of American Ballet, Columbia City Ballet, danced with New York City Ballet, Kaleidoscope Dance Company, and Les Ballet Jazz de Montreal. He is a highly recognized educator working with institutions such as The Ailey School, New York University/Tisch School of the Arts, the Boys Choir of Harlem and the Joffrey Ballet School. A award winning director/choreographer, Maurice serves several boards including the Young Choreographers Festival.

STEPHANIE GOTARD - Chapin Cultural Connector Award

"Art pulls a community together...Art makes you feel differently. That's what artists are doing all the time, shifting, and changing the way you see life." This quote by playwright Lister Sinclair, perfectly expresses why the arts are so important to Stephanie. Stephanie's career, and personal life has revolved around supporting and serving the community. As an educator teaching the importance of fundamental law, Global Studies, and diversity, she engaged students to be responsible citizens. Her work as Executive Director of the Leadership Huntington Foundation creating community leadership training workshops provided a platform for her to facilitate relationships between local businesses and organizations. Executive Director of the Huntington Historical Society, Stephanie uses her position and passion as a catalyst to develop partnerships between individuals, businesses, organizations and the arts, all for the betterment of the community as a whole. These accomplishments, including her volunteer work with organizations like Tri-CYA, and Huntington Chamber of Commerce speaks volumes.
